Spiritual Self-help Book Provides Tools and Strategies for Emerging from the Spiral of Fear

Fear Not My Child, I AM Here is a compelling first person account of modern day alchemy in-action. It is also a complete guidebook for the practical mystic within everyone. Author Carol Lynn Fitzpatrick decoded the mysteries of energetically delivered teachings as her guides challenged her to surrender her fears to God. Providing the reader the benefit of having learned it the hard way, the author provides self-help tools and life-affirming strategies for breaking through the barrier of beliefs that cause us so much pain and hardship.

This particular body of work is a collaboration with a group of souls who identify themselves as enlightened beings or Divine Masters. They hail from the house of David representing three generations prior to and up to the time of Jesus and his followers. This way of receiving energetically delivered lessons formed the backbone of the author's spiritual learning, which began years ago during a particularly fearful and traumatic time in her life. Since that time, she has been undergoing a transformation that has taken her deep into the mystical realms of the Divine.

Fear Not My Child, I Am Here is for anyone who is seeking solace in knowing that we are all truly One with everyone. It teaches us that darkness is an illusion of the mind, which has no hold over us. The author challenges readers to claim their birthright as spiritual beings of Light. In doing so, she provides us with a clear path to say “yes” to the change we are invoking.

The Divine Masters tell us, “We are not the body. We are, in fact, God incarnate in the physical expression.”

When writing the book, the author asked, “If we are that, then how do we throw off the illusions of pain and suffering we have come to identify with? Who are we if we are not the fear we hold in our hearts?” She found their answer, and many more answers to her questions, life-transforming.

Early Reviews

“Carol Fitzpatrick is truly a gifted seer...the simple plan for happiness and enlightenment detailed in her book display a wisdom far beyond what is normally found in the physical realm. The messages Carol receives from her guides and teachers, as written in this book, have been shown to me to be totally credible...I highly recommend Carol’s work as a “must read.”

—Marty Wangberg, CEO

"As Spirit would have it, [this book] came to me just prior to the "rug being pulled out from under me.' I was in tremendous fear. This fear was unlike anything I had ever experienced before. I could feel it enveloping my being. Carol’s book was in my car. My guidance told me to get it and start to read and embrace what it had to say. I did that and Fear Not, My Child became my supporter, my best friend, my workbook... So many, "Is that what that means?" and “aha’s” stayed in my mind. I found myself quoting my new learned lessons to friends...I highly recommend the reading to anyone and everyone."

—Jacklyn Marie Fajans, Ultrasonograph

"The author provides us with a gentle reminder through her own experiences, messages from her Guides, and the truth of our shared human experience, that we truly are the 'lead actor in our own play' and the choice to live fully—without fear—is ours."
